

Passing Between Two Men or Women – Introduction

The Gemara (Horios 13b) lists ten behaviors that cause one to forget his learning. One of these behaviors is when a man passes between two women, or when a woman passes between two men.

Elsewhere, the Gemara (Pesachim 111a) says that a man should not pass between two women. If he did pass, he should recite pesukim that begin and end with the word “Keil – א-ל” or with the word “Lo - לא” (See Bamidbar 23:19, 22-23)

Several explanations for this prohibition are given:

1. It can pose a physical danger to both the one walking in middle as well as to those on the sides. (Pesachim ibid.)
2. Sorcery. (ibid.)
3. It can cause an ayin hara (evil eye). (See Zohar Chadash 81b; in some prints, 99b)
4. It can lead one to gaze upon women or have hirhurim. (Chiddushei Rav Yedai HaPenini, Horios ibid.)
