לע'נ פעסל בת ישראל מנחם / לזכות חילינו

Hashem will never lose patience with you; just be sure to never lose patience with yourself.

INSPIRED BY THE TEACHINGS OF REBBE NACHMAN (1772-1810)

The moment we stop seeing the faults of others and start seeing the struggles of others, the love will flow naturally.

INSPIRED BY THE TEACHINGS OF RABBI MENACHEM MENDEL OF RIMANOV (1745-1815)

One evening there was a knock at the door as dozens of people stood outside. The owner of the house asked them who they were. One of them responded, "I am happiness. He is faith. That one is wealth. This is health. The tall one is success. The hoodlum over there is power." And so, he identified each one.

"We are your wishes and desires. But," he said to the bewildered family, "you may choose only one of us."

The family was uncertain. Success or health? Happiness or money? Finally, the patriarch decided, "We will take faith."

Faith entered the house – and all of the other wishes began to follow him.

"What's going on," wondered the father aloud, "you said we could only choose one wish?"

"That's true," explained happiness, "but wherever faith goes, we all follow."

*Never underestimate what people can survive when they stop fighting with each other and start fighting for each other.
Bricks alone are fragile, but together they build cities. Unity turns weakness into strength, creating a foundation strong enough to support what cannot be carried alone.*

INSPIRED BY THE TEACHINGS OF CHIZKIYA THE SON OF REB CHIYA (MEDRASH TANCHUMA, NITZAVIM)

Your most heroic acts are those of which you may not even be aware.

Like the time you could have gotten even with the guy in the next cubicle, and nobody would have known.
And you really wanted to. But you didn't, just because it's not right.

You may not have been impressed with yourself – you may have even been disappointed with yourself. But the angels burst into song, as your entire world just rose up a notch. It may have been the most elevating act of a lifetime.
Because it's when you break out of your nature that you enter the realm of the divine.
