Sing To the Extreme About All the Good Going on In Your Life AMAZING STORY

The Baal HaTurim says¹ that וְאֶתְחַנֵּן is the same gematria as "שירה" Shira. Moshe first said Shira in order that his Tefila should be accepted. I once had a bad swelling that required antibiotics and staying in bed for several weeks; which I despised! I decided to sing to the extreme, like Dovid always said Haleluka's, which mean screaming in praise (similar to the word: הוללות wildness) since to really succeed, a person needs to go extreme. (Chazon Ish²). **

I spent a good hour forcing myself to Chazzer all the good going on in my life until I felt Shikor (drunk) with Hoda'ah. Then, I asked Hashem for an immediate Yeshua. In two days, the redness had disappeared!

כִּי מִי גוֹי גָּדוֹל - וּמִי גוֹי גָּדוֹל ד ד-ח

A True Jewish Leader Understands His Flock and He Doesn't Get Carried Away with Tochacha

This Parsha is loaded with the sharp Tochacha of Moshe Rabeinu, who was concerned that we shouldn't get ourselves into trouble when we enter Eretz Yisroel. He recounts the episode of Baal Pe'or and many other drastic mistakes that we made in the past, and he warns how we should be careful: אֲבָד תֵּאבְדוּן ד כו "It's life or death", Chas V'shalom. **

However, he is constantly building us up, saying: כִּי מִי גוֹי גָּדוֹל "Which nation is as great as you" again and again, אַךְ "You'll do Teshuva", and: וְיִבְדִּיל ד מא he even showed his concern for a Rotze'ach B'shoge

(unintentional murderer), and he helped them by designating Arei Miklat for them (even though Chazal call³ them Reshaim). A true:

כך עוֹנִין אֶת הַמְעוֹקוֹת: have a Tayna on Yaakov: "Is this how you speak to a broken person??" *****

We Need to Be Dan Our

Generation L'kaf Zechus a Lot

We need to be this way with ourselves also. Chazal explain⁴ that when it says: וַיִּשְׁכַּב רְאוּבֵן אֶת בְּלָהָה וַיִּשְׁלַח לָהּ כֹּב it doesn't mean literally, Chas V'shalom. Just according to the lofty Madrega of Reuven, even a slight Aveira is looked at as if he did something much more drastic. The same way, when we are dealing with broken and depressed people, which can be typical of our generation, we need to be Dan L'kaf Zechus a lot. ****

Yaakov told Rochel: הֲתַחַת אֱלֹקִים "Am I Hashem??" and the Seforno says⁵ that when Yaakov heard Rochel say: הֲבָה לִי בָנִים וְאִם "Give me children, or else I will die!" he felt she was bordering on K'fira, Chas V'shalom (since her words implied that the power to grant children rests with Yaakov). Yet, Chazal stick up for Rochel and

Just as it's difficult to work on Bitachon, so is it difficult to constantly judge yourself L'kaf Zechus, despite your many mistakes and Aveiros. If your nature is to put yourself down, you have a holy obligation to work on blowing yourself up constantly

Many Concepts We Heard from Baalei Mussar Are Simply Not for Our Dor

There are many, many concepts in Avodas Hashem that we have heard from Baalei Mussar, which are simply not for our Dor! We may do good things with Negi'os, and we may have loads of Middos which may not be Mamash the real Chet, but they "smell" from Ka'as, Kin'ah, Ta'ava, and Kavod, etc. We habitually put ourselves down, and we have no right to do that! *****

We have pressures and difficult backgrounds that can often Pater (excuse) us from many unwanted behaviors. For so-and-so the Metzuyan doing a certain thing is a big Aveira, but for "Mr. Zero" who's barely getting up in the morning, the same behavior is a much smaller Aveira. Each person has to be judged according to his unique situation. *****

You May Have a Chiyuv to Constantly Consider Yourself a Rash'kebe'hag

There is a big Yetzer Hara to have massacist tendencies. There is a lust to degrade yourself and decide you're no good. If you are really working on your Middos, then you will Davka be Dan yourself L'kaf Zechus no matter how bad you are. By working on Middos you need to go extreme, and the person who has a tendency and a subconscious thrill to put himself in the "garbage can" all day, may have a Chiyuv to constantly consider himself a Rash'kebe'hag. *****

Esther was the hero of the Purim story. At first, she didn't want to sacrifice her life, and Mordechai had to speak sharp words (ואת וביית אבירך) you and your father's house will be lost) to get her to do it. Yet, she eventually said to the Chachomim: כתבוני לדורות מגילה ז א inscribe my story for generations. I want to be remembered forever by Gantz Klal Yisroel! *****

Look Away from Your Shortcomings, And Focus Only on Your Greatness

We need to learn from this to look away from our shortcomings, and move on and focus only on our greatness (especially if we don't function, even partially), despite our deep massacist tendencies. Stop saying: "My learning, davening, Bain Adam La'chaveiro, etc. isn't done wholeheartedly". Remember! R' Shlomo Wolbe Zatzal said that a person should be Dan himself L'kaf Zechus. *****

PS. If when you are: תובע (tough on) yourself, it causes to improve, then of course you should be more tough on yourself. Get a Rebbe who understands you and play safe! עשה לך רב

The Message of Aseres HaDibros: To Be Sameach B'chelko

There seems to be a central theme in the entire Aseres HaDibros; to be Sameach B'chelko. אנכי "I am your Hashem" means that you have everything if you stick to Hashem, since He took us out of Mitzrayim and can always help us. לא יהיה לך "Don't look elsewhere" like the Navi said: מה מצאו אבותיכם בי עול ירמיה ב ה What's wrong with just sticking to Hashem? Be Sameach B'chelko; you have everything when you have Emuna. אשר הוצאתיך מארץ מצרים He has already done the impossible (Yetzias Mitzrayim) for you, so there is no need to look elsewhere. **

Kibud Av v'Em means being happy with yourself and your own roots. Your parents brought you into this world, and you are forever grateful to them since they are the source of your very existence. Kibud Av v'Em is indeed a form of Sameach B'chelko, and being happy that you're alive. ***

Shmiras Shabbos means to let go and stop thinking of getting "more" in life. Take a break and relax. Be Sameach B'chelko and just enjoy Hashem's beautiful world, and get a Mitzva of Oneg Shabbos which symbolizes your love and appreciation of His world. Shabbos is Zecher L'yetzias Mitzrayim, meaning that it reminds you how Hashem saved you from the worst Yissurim, and there is nothing to worry about, since we are in His

A person's memory should be full of the great deeds (gold) he has done in the past. Never should a person think of his shortcomings and disabilities (except on Yom Kippur, and when so doing brings positive results)

And all the negative commandments are clearly Sameach B'chelko messages. We don't steal, kill, desire, or hurt others by being a false witness. Notice how of all Arayos, the only one mentioned is Eishes Ish, which means not being satisfied with your own, and looking for others, Rachmana Litzlan. *****

A Person Is as Happy as He Makes Up His Mind to Be STORY

A Yungerman from Australia with twelve normal, healthy, total-Nachas children wrote me a 30-page letter about the pain he has since his wife is having all kinds of trouble in having more children. He is trying all kinds of Eitzos and getting Brachos from R' Chaim Kanievsky (Shlita) Zatzal and many others, and he is super frustrated since he's getting no place. *****

I have seen many childless couples, and it is striking how both these types suffer just as much. I knew an old Talmid Chochom who had a beautiful family with loads of Einiklach all major Metzuyanim (top learners), and he himself was a super accomplished person. *****

Yet, he was very bitter because he felt that his learning wasn't up to par, despite his great Hasmada. A person is as happy as he makes up his mind to be! *****

Nobody can tell person what to think. Your mind is totally in your own Reshus

Sometimes you have way too much of a nature of always being dissatisfied, and it's better to keep quiet and learn how to be Sameach B'chelko, even in Ruchaniyus. You need to go extreme in working on your bad Middos, and don't ask for anything! Just thank, and you'll accomplish much more (control), and you can turn your life into a Gan Eden just by always thinking happy thoughts, and not focusing on other people, with all the jealousies and Redifas HaKavod that kills all the fun. A message of Aseres HaDibros is not to have any Kin'ah, Ta'ava, and Kavod; and to be happy with Hashem.

Novardokers Realize That All the Pain of Criticism Comes from Redifas HaKavod AMAZING TRUE STORY

A Yungerman from Boro Park is married to an extremely difficult wife who screams and criticizes all day. His self-esteem has suffered greatly, and his children are full of pain. He discovered Bitachon Weekly and my talks, and he and his boys are constantly going over my principles. As a result, they have all become super happy. **

Whenever his wife screams at her sons, they are truly overjoyed. They keep calling themselves Novardokers who realize that all the pain and intolerance of criticism comes from Redifas HaKavod. They are constantly praising each other instead of being jealous or one another. They pride themselves with being a: לב ששמו בגדולת אחיו heart that rejoices with his brother's greatness. ***

Instead of looking for Kavod, they truthfully love Bizyonos, and pride themselves with the Zechusim of Bizyonos (thereby losing all their sins). (*Ariza*⁶).

There Is Plenty to Cry About on Tisha B'av!

But first be double-sure that you aren't depressive. In that case, you have to spend all your time and Kochos on being super-happy and happy and more-happy. Hashem understands, and He will have more nachas from you working on Simcha instead of crying for the Bais Hamikdash. But when you do cry, remember the beautiful Mizbeach and Shulchan and Menorah, and the sweet smelling Mizbeach HaKetores and those lightening-speed holy Cohanei Hashem, and the incredible "Mar'eh Cohen" after the Cohen Gadol left the Kodesh HaKodoshim on Yom Kippur. **

Cry when you think of Simchas Bais HaSho'eva, and everyone crowding on Erev Pesach with their tiny lambs. Remember the excitement and the music of: הִבָּאת בִּינֹרִים (bringing Bikkurim; the massive parade of people who were coming to the Bais Hamikdash to thank Hashem with Bikkurim), and don't forget the Simcha of being Oleh Regel, and proclaiming: שְׂמֵחֵתִי How I rejoice when told we will go to the house of Hashem. עַמְדוֹת Our feet were literally

Breaking Middos Is Everything

You've suffered enough! Such a long and painful Galus! Hashem wants us to come back to Him and enjoy the beautiful world of Kavod Shamayim being prevalent. Now, on the road back home there are two problems. The road has to be straightened out. You have low ditches and holes that need to be filled up, so you don't fall into a pit. And you have to flatten out those hills and mounds which stand in the way. **

People have Kin'ah for all those "better people" e.g. the wealthy, the famous, the popular, the personalities, the Menahalim, the Roshei Yeshivos, the Admorim, those who are famous and respected, etc. In Novardok they laughed at all these people who really "made it". The world is full of Dimyon and Redifas HaKavod כָּל גֵּיא יִנָּשָׂא יִשְׁפְּלוּ מִדֶּם. Every deep ditch will be lifted and filled up, and all the mountains and hills will be put down. (*Metzudos*⁸). NOW we have a straight and smooth road to walk on with Geshmak. We can suggest that this can be a Remez to: עֵיקַר חַיִּית הָאָדָם שְׁבִירַת הַמִּדּוֹת Shviras HaMiddos, which is the main purpose of life. (*Gr"a*⁹). Breaking Middos is everything, and if you don't get involved in it, then you have a crazy weird road. ***

Those Who Are M'vatel Lesser Beings Are the REAL Losers

Many people are by nature arrogant and Ga'ava'dik. They think that they own the world, and they are "Bessere Mentchin" (a better type of person). If Hashem gave them talents and intelligence, and all kinds of Kochos and abilities, they look down at people who struggle, e.g., with learning Torah, or being a nice normal person, with friends and Kavod and a smooth sailing life. They have all the advantages. They get into the best Yeshivos, or make the most money,

But they don't realize that in the world of truth, they may be in the "garbage can" and the worst Gehinom is theirs, since they are M'vatel all those lesser beings. They may have strong Shitos "L'shem Shamayim", and poke fun at "lower" Shitos (quoting Gedolim, of course). Actually, the Yetzer Hara is having a ball with them, and B'emes they are real losers. *****

So don't be so envious of all those super-successful popular Tzadikim and Geonim and Roshei Yeshivos and Baalei Tzedaka and wonderful Askanim. They have the horrific Nisayon HaGa'ava which you may not be aware of, since they smile so nicely and act so Eidel and Ois'ge'arbet like Tzaddikei HaDor. If they don't go to a true Rebbe or Mussar Yeshiva that "puts you in your place" and introduces you to the hard work of Shviras HaMiddos (that every human must be involved in, but may not even realize its importance), then Rachmana Litzlan. *****

Working On Anava Is Healthy Only for the Mutzlach'dik Person

There were plenty of Korach's and Y'ravam's and Doeg's and Achitofel's, etc., who remain symbols of failure, Rachmana Litzlan. (PS. Not every Mutlach'dik person is automatically a Baal Ga'ava who's heading for Gehinom. There are plenty of those who are true Tzadikim). These successful people are: וְגִבְעָה יִשְׁפְּלוּ like "mountains" who need to lower themselves. When Chazal say: מְאֹד מְאֹד הָיָה שָׁפֵל רוּחַ אֲבוֹתֵינוּ be a very big Anav, they mean mainly these types of people. And unfortunately, there are: כָּל גֵּיא יִנָּשָׂא the lowly types, who are busy working on Anava and Shiflus (lowliness), and they dig a deeper-and-deeper pit for themselves, and they never become the true great person (that they don't even realize) they truly are. It's all hidden to them, since they're so busy with Anava. *****

The Shafel Needs to Work Mainly on Romemus

I mainly talk about the שָׁפֵלֵי רוּחַ lowly souls who are "deep pits", and need to be: וְיִגְבְּהוּ לְבָבוֹ בְּדַרְכֵי ה' uplifted types (כָּל גֵּיא יִנָּשָׂא). They need mainly Romemus, and need to always fill up that never ending deep hole, and blow themselves up loads and loads.

Learning Shaar HaBitachon Makes You a New and Happy Person

TRUE STORY

A Yerushalmi woman had a very hard life, with super difficult Parnasa issues and loads of misunderstanding with her husband, etc. She started listening to Bitachon Shmuessin, until she decided to spend an hour a day learning Shaar HaBitachon B'iyun (in depth). Although she can't always do it, she said that whenever she does it, her whole day is totally B'simcha. What normally caused her aggravation, now gives her loads of Simcha,

Keep pouring as many positive messages on yourself all day long, and watch how you'll transform yourself into a much better, happier, and more capable person and she is a new and happy person.

TRUE STORY

A super-shy Bachur called me up to tell me that all his life he had been very shy and inhibited, until he studied loads of my Novardoker Shmuessin, which keep telling you to Farpok (not care about) the whole world. He told me that ever since he applies these Yesodos in his life, he had such a wonderful time in camp like never before. So much stress & fears were not there anymore, and he was a free and happy person. **

I know a Yungerman who gets a thrill from his constant laughing and Farpocking (not caring about) his many daily issues. He has plenty serious ones, yet he laughs at them and blanks out the problem with all the details, and he is constantly seeing Yeshuos L'maala Min HaTevah.

NOVARDOK

I know a Dayan in Lakewood who is a Talmid of R' Benzion Bruk Zatzal. I mentioned to him how impressed I was with him when he spoke in B.M.G. about 35 years ago. He was very calm and Menucha'dik. He was very short, and he looked strikingly similar to R' Moshe Feinstein Zatzal. He had a seriousness about everything he said, that I've never seen anywhere. He was a Zaken when he was Niftar, but they say that his Petira was directly because he didn't eat on Yom Kippur when he should have. **

Of course, Pikuach Nefesh comes first, and it was obviously a mistake. However, you can tell that this person would easily and gladly give his life for Hashem. He was total Ruchani, and Gashmiyus played no role in his life whatsoever. This is how he came across, and indeed, Novardok is famous for this. Although he appeared like a normal, put together person with his feet on the ground, yet, it seemed to matter zero to him whether he was making an impression or not. ***

He seemed to have no Shaychus at all with stage fright. He cared very much about the topic he was giving a Shmuess about. His Talmid told me that as he became older, his Madregos became higher and higher. In his later years he could barely talk, and when he gave a Vaad, you almost couldn't hear him.

He was very weak. Yet, when he gave a His'orerus every Shabbos after Mincha (like Minhag Novardok), you heard him! Very loud! ****

They shut the lights after the Zman, and after giving a Shmuess in depth, they lift their voices and are M'orer (stir) themselves to do Teshuva. They give a Mashal to describe the Matzav of Elul, to a person who is drowning in the ocean, and he has a piece of wood to grab. If he holds on, he will live. If not, it's over, Chas V'shalom. *****

I knew a Novardoker who had abnormal Nisyonos that could "kill an elephant". Yet, he was a symbol of Simcha and Laibedikeit despite his advancing years. I asked him how he manages, and he told me that as long as he puts in his time to learn Mussar, he's okay. "While you grab the piece of wood, you're saved".

Questions To Rabbi Mandel

Non-Stop Complaining

Question: Dear Rabbi Mandel. I am looking for your guidance regarding a challenge I am facing at home. My wife frequently expresses frustration, claiming that I lack financial knowledge, and that I am not earning enough money. Despite her concerns, we are currently living very comfortably.

I would appreciate your advice on how to best handle this situation and address these recurring conversations. Thank you in advance

Answer: I have seen Yungerleit, especially Europeans from prewar Europe, where the wife could scream all day long, and they will never answer. It all goes over their head (I've seen Americans who can do this also, Gedolei Torah). I've seen a lady let her husband "have it" (a famous Gadol in all the Gedolim pictures) she lets him have it! And he doesn't care! He just laughs it off. You have to learn to do that. Laugh it off, and who cares. But don't answer her.

Follow-up Question: Dear Rabbi Mandel, I am writing to follow up on my previous message regarding the challenges I am experiencing at home. While I appreciate your time, I was hoping to receive a more detailed or perhaps a different perspective on the situation.

As I mentioned, I am looking for further guidance on how to best address my wife's concerns regarding our financial situation, especially given that we are currently living comfortably. If possible, could you please provide a more comprehensive response or additional advice on how to navigate these recurring conversations? Thank you again for your guidance and support

Answer: How to deal with a wife like this? I don't even know. I'm not good at this. You need to ask someone else. What I know is, keep away, don't talk so much. כל המרבה דברים, מביא חטא אבות א יז The more you speak, the more likelihood for sin. The Mashgiach of Lakewood, R' Nosson Zatzal said, the more you talk with your wife, the less healthy it is. Don't talk all day. Talking is not healthy.

Do your thing, and don't get so involved with her. That much I know. It's very healthy. And don't be so "nice". So you're not so "perfect"; who cares?

But if your wife is going to dominate things, and do things that are not Tsum Zach (appropriate), you'll run into trouble, Chas V'shalom. I give a Bracha that everything is going to straighten out.
