

People Who Do Favors for Each Other

6. Some poskim give a general rule: If members of the opposite gender would help each other, or do favors for one another, specifically “due” to the closeness and familiarity that the relationship connotes (and they wouldn’t do such favors for others), the relationship has the status of libo gas bah. (Dvar Halachah 7:16)