לע"נ פעסל בת ישראל מנחם / לזכות חילינו

Never mistake an unfinished journey for an unworthy effort. Personal development doesn't require constant criticism. You can recognize what needs improvement while appreciating the person making the effort.

Growth flourishes in self-respect, not in self-contempt. The voice you hear most often deserves to be kind. Speak to yourself in a way that encourages progress, not in a way that makes you afraid to try. Remember, becoming your best self should never come at the expense of loving yourself along the way.

INSPIRED BY THE TEACHINGS OF REBBE NACHMAN (1772-1810)

The quietest acts of faith are often the loudest in Heaven. The prayer whispered through tears, the trust held onto when nothing makes sense, the decision to keep going when giving up would be easier – none of it goes unnoticed. What the world never sees may be among the things Hashem cherishes most.

When it feels like Hashem has put a wall in front of you, know that He has already prepared the ladder for you to climb it.

Life is a lot like taking a photo: focus on what's important, capture the good, develop from the negatives, and if things don't work out, take another shot.

EZ INSPIRATION

You are stronger than you think, more capable than you realize, and more loved than you'll ever know.
