

A Holiday-themed Gift

12. If a Yid receives as a gift an item that is not of an exclusively holiday nature, but it has holiday-themed words or images on it – e.g., dishes, tablecloths, etc. – one should not use it in a holy place, such as a beis medrash or yeshiva. (Rav Yechiel Mechel Steinmetz shlita)

13. If the holiday theme is only on the package but not on the gift item itself, one may use it anywhere. (Shu”t Shevet Halevi 2:57)
